

CAST Scheme of Delegation (13 December 2019) - Appendix 1

Table of Roles and Responsibilities

Responsibilities of the Diocesan Bishop and the Diocesan Education Service

Canon law (Church law) provides that each diocesan bishop has strategic responsibility to commission sufficient school places to meet the needs of baptised Catholic children resident in his area. A Catholic school is one which is recognised as such by the diocesan bishop. Canon 803 provides the definition of a Catholic school. Canon 803§1 provides that a school is Catholic if:

- (a) It is controlled¹ by a diocese or religious order; or
- (b) It is acknowledged in a written document as Catholic by the diocesan bishop.

All Catholic schools are subject to the jurisdiction of the diocesan bishop, even those that are not in diocesan trusteeship. Canon 806§1 provides:

“The Diocesan Bishop has the right to watch over and inspect Catholic schools in his territory...and has the right to issue directives concerning the general inspection of Catholic schools...those who are in charge of Catholic schools are to ensure, under the supervision of the local Ordinary², that the formation given in them, including its academic standards, are at least as outstanding as that in other schools in the area”.

In respect of his schools, which includes academies, the bishop has the legal right to appoint (and remove) an overall majority of directors and governors, who are known as foundation directors and foundation governors. In addition to all the other legal responsibilities of the academy trust (for academies) and the governing body (for voluntary aided schools), the law recognises that foundation directors/governors are appointed specifically to ensure:

- That the Catholic character of the school is preserved;
- That the school is conducted in accordance with its trust deed; and
- That the religious education curriculum is in accordance with the bishop’s policy for his diocese, based on the Bishops’ Conference Curriculum Directory.

The diocesan bishop, acting through his Diocesan Schools Commissioner, is responsible for:

¹ The ‘control’ specified in canon 803 is normally established where the diocese or religious order owns the school and appoints the governing body (or at least a majority of it).

² ‘Ordinary’ includes the Diocesan Bishop and those, such as Vicars General and Episcopal Vicars, exercising Ordinary jurisdiction on his behalf as well as to describe the relevant Religious Superior in respect of religious order schools, and this also includes their respective representative officers.

- The provision and future development of excellent Catholic education throughout the diocese
- The oversight of high educational standards, progress and outcomes in all diocesan schools
- The appointment, development and training of foundation directors and governors and their removal
- The inspection of religious life of schools and RE (section 48 inspections)
- The development of Catholic teachers and leaders (and all appointments should be made in accordance with diocesan protocol)
- The oversight of school buildings/estate and capital projects
- Planning of school place provision
- Engaging with the RSC and Ofsted
- Maintaining links with the Catholic Education Service and the government

Where those responsibilities are not carried out by the DSC in respect of Plymouth CAST, then a Memorandum of Understanding will be drawn up between Plymouth CAST and Plymouth Diocese Diocesan Schools Commission, to determine the allocation of responsibilities.

The CES model Scheme of Delegation, more particularly the table at Appendix I, is modelled on a 'traditional' multi-academy trust structure. 'Traditional' for the purposes of this document is used to describe a situation where there is substantial delegation to the local governing body level to make decisions, although such decisions must be in line with the overall strategic vision set by the directors. The model does, however, provide for certain functions to be undertaken by a senior executive leadership team. By comparison, some multi-academy trust companies will delegate very little to their local governing bodies and will retain all decision-making powers and/or delegate to a senior executive leadership team. It is envisaged that the bigger the multi-academy trust, the larger the senior executive leadership team will be and, as such, the board of directors will delegate to the senior executive leadership team and not down to the academy level. This model would leave the local governing body free to concentrate on such things as educational standards at the academy and community relations. As a larger multi-academy trust, this is the approach taken by Plymouth CAST.

Explanation of the layers of governance in Plymouth CAST Trust structure

Members:

- Guardians of the governance of the Multi-Academy Trust
- Accountable to the Bishop (unless the Member is the Bishop)
- Signatories to the Memorandum and Articles of Association
- Akin to shareholders

Directors:

- Trust Directors and Charity Trustees
- Accountable to the Members and the Bishop
- Duty to uphold the Multi-Academy Trust's objects and to comply with any directives, advice and/or guidance issued by the Bishop
- Responsible for preserving and developing the Multi-Academy Trust's Catholic character at all times, and this overriding duty (which is also a legal duty) should permeate everything that the Directors do.
- Responsible for the general control and management of the administration of the Multi-Academy Trust and for delivering the three core functions
- Responsible for standards of education in the academies within the Multi-Academy Trust
- Delegate functions to sub-committees, senior executive leadership, LGBs, and Headteachers
- Appoint the senior executive leadership

Senior executive leadership:

- Appointed by the Board of Directors and employed by the Multi-Academy Trust
- Expectation that this will include a senior executive, for example a CEO, if appropriate depending on the size and stage of development of the multi-academy trust
- Responsible for 'operations' and for delivering the Board's vision and ethos – the 'professional leaders'
- Responsible for the Multi-Academy Trust's financial effectiveness and stability and for ensuring value for money
- Responsible for the performance management of the Headteachers with the support of the Local Governing Board.

LGB Governors:

- Appointed/elected to be a governor of a specific academy within the Multi-Academy Trust in accordance with the Scheme of Delegation
- Have oversight of one (or more) academy in the multi-academy trust and are accountable to the board of Directors of the multi-academy trust or their conduct as governors and their support of the Catholic character of their academy and the Trust
- Vital link to the local community

Headteacher:

- Responsible for day to day management of the Academy (or academies in an executive headship type arrangement)
- Responsible for performance management of staff excluding those staff whose performance is managed by the Directors, a committee of the Directors, the senior executive leadership.
- Responsible for standards in their Academy/school
- Full description of the Headteacher's responsibilities can be found in the revised Job Descriptions (Sept 2018). This document does not cover the full range of Headteacher responsibilities or replace their Job Descriptions

KEY:

ND: means non-delegable

Notes to assist in reading this table

It is envisaged that, where the senior executive leadership have been delegated responsibility by the board of directors, an appropriate member of the senior executive leadership will take the lead based on their qualifications, expertise, skills, experience and/or availability (it should be noted that the term ‘senior executive leadership’ can mean one person or a group of people). There is an expectation that there will be one person on the senior executive leadership team who will lead and assume accountability for decisions taken by the team e.g. a CEO type figure.

In all that the multi-academy trust does, it should ensure that any diocesan policy, procedure, protocol or guidance is reflected and followed, including by the academies within the multi-academy trust.

In this table, the term ‘company’ which appears in the Introduction has been changed to Trust, as in the Multi Academy Trust (company)

In this table, the term ‘headteacher’ shall mean the principal or headteacher employed in the academy and reference to ‘headteachers’ shall mean each of the headteachers employed in each of the academies in the Trust.
