Teacher of Humanities

Required from September 2026
1.0 FTE, Fixed-Term to 31st August 2027

We are seeking a new colleague to join our Humanities team, someone who can share their passion for Humanities across our two secondary schools as they continue their improvement journeys (Notre Dame Plymouth (11-18) and St. Boniface's Catholic College (11-16)).

Our two secondary schools are single-sex and we have a mixed sixth form based at Notre Dame. Our Humanities team teach across both schools, building a culture of high expectations in which all students are inspired and supported to excel. We warmly welcome applications whether you are at the beginning of your teaching career or offer significant experience of teaching.

We are growing a culture of teaching excellence in our schools, encouraging teachers to be creative, collaborating in the academic and personal formation of our students. Our Catholic ethos welcomes those of all faiths and none, though we ask for a respect for our Christian values. We share a commitment to the holistic formation of the young, seeing education as preparation for a life lived well, where every young person leaves us brilliantly educated, able to contribute their unique gifts to the society of the future.

Application forms can be submitted via the TES website and should be submitted by the closing date stated below. You will need a TES login to create an application and please be aware all communication will be sent via the portal to the email you use for your TES account. Applicants should check their inbox (and spam folders) after the closing date for more information on the progress of their application.

If you would like to discuss the vacancy or visit us before applying please contact Mrs Helen Laird; School Business Manager via email at hlaird@ndonline.org. We would love to hear from you.

Deadline: Midnight, Sunday 19th April 2026
Interviews: w/c 27th April 2026

The school operates a Safeguarding Children Recruitment Policy and is committed to promoting the welfare of young people. The successful applicant will be required to undertake an Enhanced DBS disclosure.
